Death of Friend Saddens Seaside

By SUE BURK
FR 5-4549

A sad note creeps into my column this week. The death of an old friend and neighbor, Emmett Ryekman, Emmett leaves behind him his wife Grace (former writer of this column) and daughter Judy. Besides the family who mourn his loss are hundreds of friends here in the Seaside area. Most of these friends who were close to Emmett will remember him as one of the nicest people ever to live in Seaside. Our condolences to Grace Ryekman and her daughter Judy. God be with you in your hour of need.

Sorry to report that little Gary Graham of 4710 Sepulveda Blvd. in Sepulveda Gardens is ill with a sore throat this week.

The Floyd Holstin family returned Monday night from a fishing trip to Mexico. Merle says that the traffic was terrible and accidents of a high percentage. We're happy that they all returned safely, though.

Another teenager celebrated her birthday with family and friends on Friday, May 21, when Dorothy Bellehumeur of 5117 Macafee Rd. turned the years to fourteen. The gaily decorated house was covered with red and blue streamers with all colors of balloons hanging like beautiful Chinese lanterns from the ceiling. The lace-covered table was filled to capacity with such things as canapes, punch, fruit and nuts. The cake (white) was covered with pretty yellow roses, Dorothy's favorite flower; and the cake was 2 ft. long, and 1 ft. wide. Enough to feed all her friends, including Barbara Masilones, Allee Mewborn, Mary Johnson, Leah Anderson, Leta Green, Beverly Richardson, Juanita Urban, Lorene Ledwidge, Bonnie Wylie, Bill Morris, Reese Haggott, Stan Wilson, David Pace, Bill Colby, Johnnie Morton, Ralph Muldoon, and of course the lovely young hostess, Dorothy Bellehumeur. Happy birthday to a pretty young lady.

Another bit of dust Friday, May 28, when the eighth grade pupils challenged the teachers to a game of baseball. Who won? Well, it's like this, the teachers hold the upper hand in the classroom, but leave it to the kids to run the ball diamond, for they stung the teachers 10-4.

Report from school by Mrs. Jones, assistant principal: "At the present time there are 1004 students attending Seaside Elementary School. At this time we feel that it will be necessary to have double sessions next year as the new Meadowbrook School also is overflowing. Teachers leaving us for a while are Mrs. Reed, (home to Santa Barbara), Mrs. Frankel (going to New York for graduate study), Miss Richey of kindergarten is going to be married. Mrs. Benstead and Mrs. Farrier are out of school for a while awaiting the approach of their babies who, we hope, will become students in Seaside. Mr. Rehwoald, principal, will be in central office for the coming year, serving as curriculum director. There will be a faculty luncheon after school is completed for this year which will be served at the Portuguese Bend Club. The last day of school will be on Friday, the eleventh day of June; the a.m. children will attend from 8 to 9 o'clock and the regular session and the p.m. session will attend from 9 to 10 o'clock.

Finally getting behind the eight-ball were Mr. and Mrs. Jack S. Mitchell who also celebrated their eighth anniversary with a wonderful party given in their home at 5113 Zakon Rd. Saturday, May 29. Helping to celebrate the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dodge, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Renz, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Grierson, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burk. Out of the many wonderful gifts received were silver ash trays, wrought iron wall planter, wrought iron candle holders and a wrought iron TV lamp. The gift that Betty was the happiest with is the set of wrought iron living room furniture given her by husband, Jack.
